The year started much the same as any other — the bewildered freshmen . . . the rush for cafeteria seats . . . the jams by the bookstore. But in the next few weeks we got back to normal.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"Knowledge is Power" gives Thornton the name for its student council. Each homeroom has its representative on the KIP forum. The officers and board are elected from the student body as a whole.

Included in this year's activities was the Homecoming weekend for which the crowning of Joyce Hay and Wayne Ethridge vied with a rain soaked parade for highlights.

Important, too, were the campaigns for cleaner campus and buildings. which was sponsored in cooperation with the Girls and Boys Clubs, and the Valentine dance.

Weekly board and forum meetings formed policies for Thornton's betterment. scholastically and socially.

The Girls Club is a big part of Thornton. Ever since it was started by Miss Frances Gordon in 1933, its purpose has been to make TTHS girls "joyous, courageous, steadfast, truthful, dependable and just, enriching their lives and making them more appreciative of others." These qualities are mentioned in the club pledge.

GIRLS

The Girls Club welcomes all freshmen in September by staging the Freshman Stand-Up with its many stunts and big hand shake, where everyone shakes everybody else's hand. In this way freshmen get to know some of the students, the dean, and the major officers. Then there are the Dad-Daughter dinner, the Girls Club dance, the Mother-Daughter banquet, with its highlight, the crowning of the May queen, teas, and homeroom parties.

COMMITTEES ARE FOR SERVICE

The many activities of the Girls Club give every girl a chance to show leadership, to work on committees, and to feel at home in this big, friendly school of ours. The welfare groups, refreshment crew at football games, and parites are both work and fun. Refreshments must be prepared, entertainment planned, and tickets sold. This year career confabs and homeroom parties were added to the activities. The goal of the pledge is thus attained, but the only formal mention of it is at the solemn Loyalty Day ceremony.

Yes, there are loads of work, but the rewards are worth while. "T" pins go to freshman and sophomore girls, junior and senior service awards to upperclassmen for outstanding work and leadership, plus torch pins for the refreshment crew and the welfare visitors. Scholarship pins are given for good grades.

Rewards also come in the form of the many friends made, the prestige attained, and the satisfaction earned from doing good.

"THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE"

The music department worked at a terrific pace to make the operetta into a finished product. There were songs to be learned, lines to be memorized, dances to be practiced (and practiced and practiced).

The Leads

"Oh here is love," sang Nancy Lussenhop (Mabel) and Bill Edwards (Frederick).

Gilbert and Sullivan Operetta

Then there was the last minute rush with scenery that defied the law of gravity and costumes that defied the laws of style. ("But it has no waist-line!" "My hat won't stay on!" "Ugh! My mouth is full of mustache.")

During all the confusion, Mr. Armbruster managed to remain calm and collected. He kept showing us how to interpret all the parts—from the Pirate King to Major-General Stanley's Youngest Daughter, and gave our enthusiasm a shot in the arm when it bogged down.

And Thorntonites felt that the finished product, "The Pirates of Penzance" more than made up for the work.

"MEET CORLISS ARCHER"

Presented by the Boys and Girls Clubs

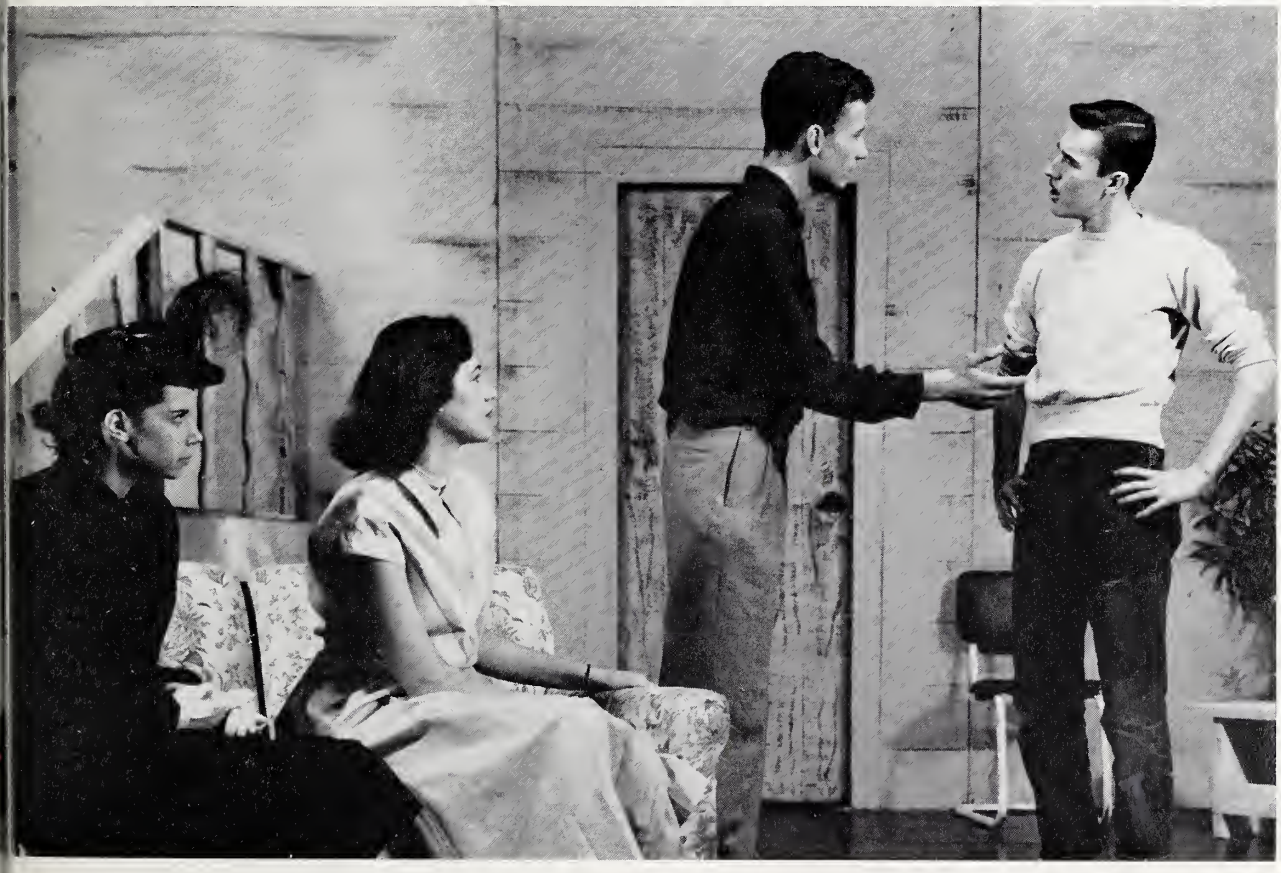
On November 16 and 17 the Boys and Girls Clubs presented "Meet Corliss Archer", a rollicking comedy about Corliss Archer (Betty Robinson), who, aided by her friend, Mildred (Joellen Jeffords). writes a diary containing startling but untrue facts about her family and friends.

Crochety Cousin Agnes (Diane Friedman) reads the diary and believes it is true. Horrified, she leaves, but not until she has persuaded everyone that Dexter (Jim Henry) is a juvenile delinquent and Mr. Archer (George Stevens), a confirmed drunkard.

The friendship of the Archers and the Franklins is strained. Corliss suffers an attack of appendicitis and is rushed to the hospital. Dexter is overcome with grief. At last Agnes returns the diary and all misunderstandings are cleared up.

Arlene Ring (maid), George Stevens (Mr. Archer), Thea Deupree (Mrs. Archer)

Diane Friedman (Aunt Agnes), Rosemary Biesen (Mrs. Franklin), Fred Furth (Mr. Franklin), Jim Henry (Dexter).



Boys and Girls Club Play

The actual performance of "Meet Corliss Archer" marked the climax of weeks of intensive work on the part of the cast and their director, Miss Watson.

Also due for a bow were the behind-the-scenes workers who did much to make the play a success.

Yes, "Meet Corliss Archer" truly captured Thornton.

Betty Robinson (Corliss), Jim Henry (Dexter)

Footlighters Plays

Footlighters Club, re-organized this year with Mr. Ohlert as sponsor, presented four plays: "Chiselers Three," "Poison Ivy," "I'm a Fool," and "A Christmas Carol."

The club also cooperated with other school organizations in presenting programs such as the Christmas concert and the operetta.

The Sports Year

The 1951-52 sports year was one of the greatest in Thornton's history. We had champions in every sport, but Thornton athletics consisted of more than wonderful teams and great coaching.

The Lettermen's Club, athletes winning varsity letters, sold football programs, and refreshments at the basketball games to finance their big banquet in May.

Drum majorettes entertained grid fans during halftime by twirling to the band's stirring music. And, of course, there were the game ushers who kept order at all athletic events, and the teachers who worked in the ticket booths.

The Sports Year

There were talented tumblers who amazed the crowds during basketball halftime with startling gymnastic feats, both on the mats and on the trampoline. Dave Parkinson zipped around on his unicycle, too.

Ushers kept the crowds under control.

But most of all there were the cheerleaders, chosen by tryouts in the spring, who did a grand job keeping up team morale, leading the crowd in yells, and keeping Wildcat throngs sportsmanlike.

Yes, we had a great athletic year, for sports at Thornton means enthusiastic students and championship teams.

The Huddle

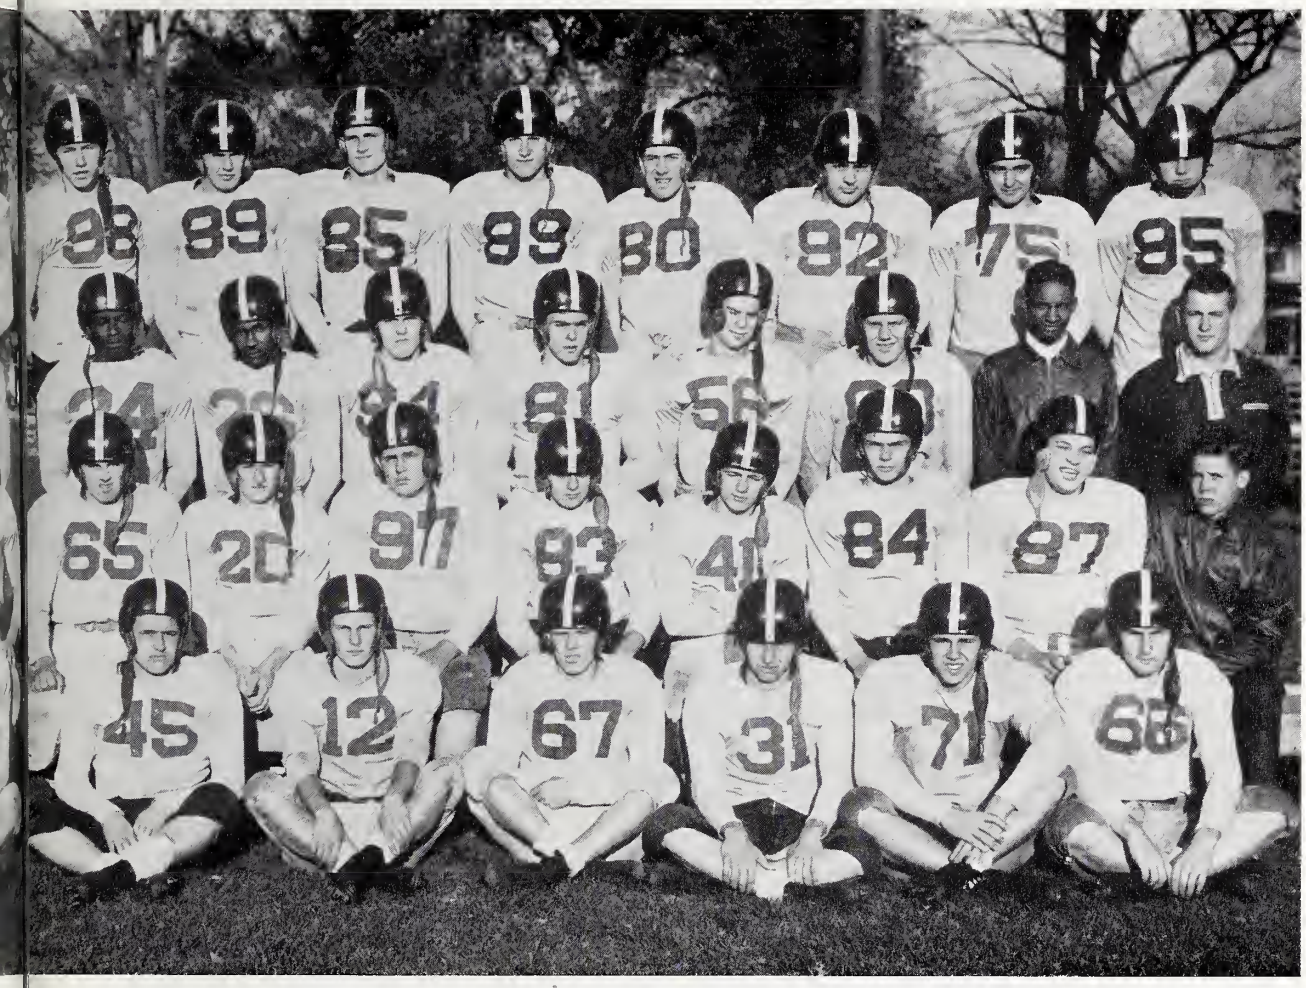
Football

Tiny Huddlestun's Wildcats rebounded after a poor start to win six of their last seven games, including the Bloom battle, and finish second in the league, splitting four games.

Rugged linemen Wayne Ethridge and Joe LaPointe made the coaches' league all-star team. Ed McChristian led Cat scoring with seven touchdowns; Roy Johnson got three, and 18 PAT'S. Jim Clark tossed nine paydirt passes. Following are each game's highlights.

The Season

Morgan Park 13, Cats 6—Morgan Park's flanker T and Don Bostrum's flashy spinners thoroughly outplayed Thornton.



The Season

Roy Johnson about to catch a pass from Francis Mech, despite the efforts of two Morgan Park players.

The Season

Argo 25, Cats 21—In a see-saw battle that saw Thornton overcoming a 14-0 first-quarter deficit, their defense collapsed in the last period. Tackle Joe LaPointe scored one Cat TD.

Wildcats 28, Leyden 21—Three TD passes of 61, 55, and 10 yards from Jim Clark to Don Abbott won the Homecoming battle.

Wildcats 28, Kankakee 7—Bob DeVries scored twice as Thornton mauled the Kays in terrific cold.

Wildcats 25, Bloom 6—With a wonderful fighting spirit, Thornton shoved Bloom all over the field in the biggest win of the year. Ray Olsen, Don Abbott, Ed McChristian, and Tom Wallace scored for Thornton.

Thornton's Ed McChristian tackles halfback George Durante of Leyden.

Don Abbott outruns the field in the Homecoming game with Leyden.

Wildkittens

With Fred Randle tallying 11 TD's, ranging from one to 72 yards, and Chuck Segneri and Fred Bunch leading the defense, Bob Blaha's and Ted Czech's Wildkittens had a 7-0-1 record and copped the league title.

A Good Season

Basketball at Thornton meant only one thing this year—victory. Tom Nisbet's Wildcats were undefeated league champions with 14 wins, had a 25-4 overall record, including the regional and sectional victories, but also a sad Sweet Sixteen loss.

The Cats were voted the outstanding team in the Chicago area by the Sun-Times and have a trophy to prove it.

Bob Blaha's Sophs had a 13-4 record, Frank Bauman's Frosh 10-4, and Hank Zevenhouse's J-V's 7-3. It was a great season!

BASKETBALL

Highlights of the varsity season were many, like beating Bloom twice, downing Quincy, 45-43, and then that 61-59 Joliet regional game—!

Bill Groogan, whose rugged play sparked Thornton all year, kept them in the battle until 53-53 overtime. Then Roy Johnson, who led Thornton in all scoring departments and made second All-State team, swished no less than seven points in the overtime!

Sticks Hillemeyer, who was one of the greatest defensive centers in the area, erupted with 20 of Thornton's 57 points against Oak Park in the sectional finals. Mead, 6'10" Husky center, was held to 10.

But in the Sweet Sixteen, everybody had a bad night at once and Rock Island won, 56-35.

To Coach Tom Nisbet, who always cooked up something new and different for each game, Thornton owes a big debt of gratitude for a very thrilling season.

The Season

Frank Froschauer's swimmers came through with their fourth consecutive South Suburban League title to cap another brilliant season which saw them lose but three times while racking up nine triumphs.

The losses were to Highland Park and Hammond, both old nemeses, and to Maine, a newcomer on the schedule. The Hammond defeat was in the last meet of the season, but it had no effect on the boys as they exploded to rack up 74 points in the league finale.

Swimming

Jack Spuck, making his second appearance in the state meet, came through with a fifth in the 100 yard free style. Bob Clarke, Russ Vernon, Ed Stanwich, Jim Phillips, and Bill Crowley also journeyed to New Trier, but failed to qualify.

The sophs, under the direction of Mel DeGraff, had a great season, too. After dropping the first two meets of the season to Cal City and Highland Park, they roared through seven encounters without the stain of defeat to finish with a 6-2-1.

Baseball

After recovering from a miserable start, Bob Blaha's varsity Wildcat nine had racked up six straight league victims (including Bloom, 14-1) at press time. In that fine streak they scored 45 runs to their opponents' 10. Not bad!

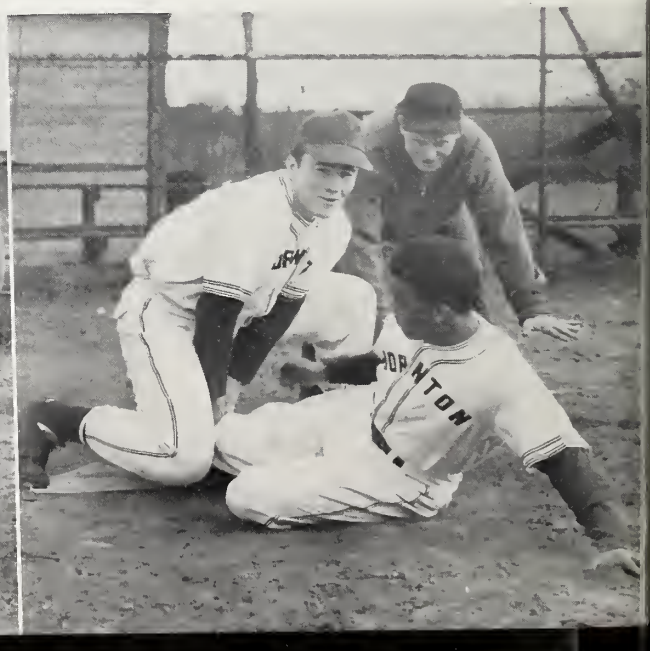
Big guns in the blasting were Francis (.422) Mech and Joe (.450) Boudreau. Freshman second baseman Dick Bennot, and catcher Wayne Ethridge also played excellent ball.

Jim Clark, Terry Fox, and Johnny Phillips, the "Big Three" of the pitching staff had phenomenally low earned run averages and plenty of strikeouts too.

Tommy Nisbet's Soph Wildkittens won their first three games, with Chuck Emerick and Don Leigh pitching in big-league style too.

Coach Bob Blaha gives Francis Mech and Jim Clark pointers on bunting.

Don Abbott slides into Wayne Ethridge guarding home plate as Bob Blaha signals he's safe.



Track

With returning lettermen such as Ed McChristian, Ed Brown, Roy Johnson, Dick Albert and Dave Banks, the varsity track team won its first two meets.

Sparked by Ed Brown, Roy Johnson, Bob DeVries and Brooks Young, the Cindermen opened the season with an 85-27 win over Kankakee. Thornton took seven firsts of the ten events.

In a triangular meet against Thornton Fractional and Bloom, the Thornton trackmen dumped the favored Bloom team 59½-58 with Fractional getting 30½ points, as Ed McChristian took two firsts and a second for 13 points. Roy Johnson looked like the state champ as he pole vaulted 11′6″.

Spring Sports

Coach Dore had twenty-eight boys trying out for the golf team, of whom nine remained on the team. Returning lettermen were Eugene Rzab, captain, John Ber, Hugh Wolff and Jack Drucker.

Once again coached by C. J. Moore, the tennis team has shown much skill and good team spirit. This year's squad consisted of the following first team: Bartlit, captain, Clement and Hillemeyer in the singles, Hill and Greiner, Rudow, Schutz, and Bullard in the doubles.

Intramural Sports

The intramural basketball program started by Mr. Mendenhall last year has expanded into a full time program.

Intramurals are founded on the fact that while every boy enjoys the thrill of participating in sports, relatively few possess the outstanding skill necessary to make the interscholastic teams.

The program this year consisted of basketball, table tennis, shuffle board, tennis, horseshoes, volleyball, soft ball, checkers, and golf.

Plans include an annual intramural track meet to be held each spring.

Each year should see more participants and a better organized program. To have every boy participate in one or more of the intramural activities is the aim of the program.

First Aid

Something new was added to the physical education program when a first-aid course for junior and senior boys and a health class for the freshmen and sophomores was started.

Tumbling

Now that tumbling classes are under way for their second year, students are becoming more familiar with the routine and look forward to the three and a half week course they will receive next year.

The main purpose of tumbling is to exercise the larger muscles of the body.

Boys Physical Education

Now that we have our $1,300,000 new gymnasium, the school is able to sponsor and is promoting a larger physical education program for the benefit of TTHS students.

Ten instructors are kept busy throughout the year by these students, who change their classes every seven weeks.

During these five periods which last seven weeks each, the students participate in a variety of sports. Among a few of these activities are football, basketball, volleyball, relays, swimming, badminton, wrestling, and tumbling. In the tumbling room a spring board, climping rope, horizontal bar, parallel bars, and a trampoline are used for exercises.

Girls Sports

The Girls Physical Education department at Thornton runs on the system of elective gym. This means the girls can choose the type of course they would like to take.

Freshman girls are offered a preview of the kinds of gym they will be able to take in their next two years.

Girls Physical Education

Health, swimming, dancing, exercises, and sports are a part of the girls program.

Sophomore and junior girls may take swimming, rhythms, and sports.

Senior girls are given the chance to plan parties, study first aid, and have discussions. They also have square dancing, archery, badminton and many other varied sports.

The co-ed gym class, under the direction of Miss Begnoche and Mr. Mendenhall, concentrated on square dancing. They became skilled enough to put on an exhibition at a basketball game.

The Girls Athletic Association

Officers for 1952 were Virginia McIntyre, president. Caryl Kennedy, vice-president. Beth Vandenberg, secretary, and Georgian Voss, treasurer.

GAA began the year by promoting three sports at one time in order to take care of the varied interests of the girls. There was softball headed by Caryl Kennedy and Marion Cuffe, square dancing managed by Betty Ward and Phyllis Ehlert, and tennis with Shirley Hay and Joyce Doherty.

"A Dip in the Seasons", the GAA water pageant, was the next event.

The volleyball season was headed by Linda Wipior and June Koster. A new method was used to select varsity teams. Players voted for their own varsity teams instead of teachers choosing the best players as they had done before. The volleyball champions were the juniors with Frances Beluschek as captain.

The basketball season was next with Caryl Kennedy and Georgian Voss as the heads. At the same time Virginia Lee and Pat Schoeler were head of square dancing. The annual basketball banquet climaxed this season.

The last season of the year was swimming, badminton, and tennis. Joan Guilotte and Beth Vandenberg were chairmen of swimming, Betty Vondracek and Shirley Andrews of tennis, and Barbara Daniels and Betty Bershinski, badminton.

We are grateful to them, for with their untiring help they have made us better students and better citizens.

Seniors

This was the year of "lasts" for seniors—their last Thornton football and basketball games—the last PX dance—the last stroll in "ye auld" TTHS halls—the last time they sat in the new gym as Thorntonites.

The seniors now look ahead—to jobs — to college — to marriage — to the draft. But most of all, they hope —for happiness—for security—for a bright future.
